Alte Brauerei, Landsberger Allee 54, Berlin Friedrichshain

During Gallery Weekend Berlin, the unofficial opener to the spring art season in Berlin, May 1 & 2, 2010, the art project spaces and galleries of the Old Brewery, Landsberger Allee 54, Berlin-Friedrichshain present an ambitious range of exhibitions and events.

The industrial buildings of the former George Patzenhofer brewery on Landsberger Allee, finished in 1877, became a home for international artists and studio spaces after it closed as a brewery in 1990. Art Space 91mQ, the galleries Styx and Kunstraum Richard Sorge have already made creative spaces there, exhibiting on a regular basis in this historic and impressive building. With the opening of the Gallery G11 on the 3rd floor the brewery, considered today as an oasis for friends of the arts, has won yet another attractive tenant.
